Western Canada 3 Minute Thesis: Open to the Public!
May 2, 2014 | 2:00pm – 4:00pm | Husky Oil Hall, Rozsa Centre
At this inaugural event, 11 graduate students from British Columbia to Manitoba will present their research in 3 minutes using only one slide as they compete for a chance at representing Western Canada at the National 3MT competition in May. Come and learn more about research being performed across Canada, and support our local UCalgary representative, Amanda Black (Kinesiology)! More information.

Labyrinth: Relax, Refresh, and De-Stress
April 21-25, 2014 | 11:00am – 4:00pm | KNA 163 (Dance Studio)
Stop by the Dance Studio in Kinesiology to relax, refresh, meditate and de-stress. There will be a Labyrinth available for walking meditation, mats for resting and lamps for studying. Everyone is welcome!

Fall 2014/Winter 2015 Registration Information
Enrollment Appointments will be posted in the Student Centre by May 1, 2014. Graduate Student registration will begin on May 28, 2014.

Conference – Assessment: Motivating, Supporting, and Evaluating Learning
May 13 & 14, 2014 | Taylor Family Institute for Teaching & Learning, Educational Development Unit
Ten bursaries are available to cover half of the registration fee to graduate students who are willing to act as conference volunteers (e.g. hosting sessions, providing directions). Apply by sending your name, discipline, and reasons for wishing to volunteer and attend the conference to mjleeder@ucalgary.ca by May 2, 2014. Students who receive the bursary will be expected to attend a one hour orientation prior to the conference.

Call for Applications: European Institutes for Advanced Study Fellowship Programme
44 ten-month residencies in 16 participating institutes are available. Apply before June 5, 2014.
