AROUND CAMPUS
Meeting with International Student Advisors at CISSA
When meeting with an International Student Advisor, please come prepared with your UCID and immigration documents. Without these, they may ask that you return at another time with all documentation. If your spouse and/or dependents have immigration related questions, please accompany them to the appointment and bring along your UCalgary Student ID (UCID).
Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant in International Student Services (ISS)
Brianna (Bree) Huene recently obtained her designation as a Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant. Due to this, Bree is now able to legally advise UCalgary students and their family members (spouse and dependents) on immigration based questions, including permanent residence. Spouses and dependents need to be accompanied by their family member who is a registered student at the University of Calgary. To speak with Bree, visit ISS (MSC 275) during walk-in hours (9am – 12pm, 1pm – 4pm, M-F) or email her to make an appointment.

Taking Flight Festival: Free Events for Students
March 31 – April 11 | Reeve and Matthews Theatres
The festival includes staged readings of plays by Anna MacAlpine (MFA), James Wade (MFA) and Sherryl Melnyk (PhD), plays and presentations directed by MFA students Azri Ali, Fasyali Fadzly and Inouk Touzin and designed by MFA student Michael Sinnott. UCalgary students can attend the performances for free under the Claim Your Seat program, by showing their unicard at the box office. More information and full schedule of events.

The City of Calgary Hackathon
April 24 – April 26 | Atrium of the Calgary Municipal Building, 800 Macleod Trail S.E.
The City of Calgary Hackathon is a 3-day competition where technical and business professionals can collaborate and design a software solution using open data from The City of Calgary. More information and to register.

HEALTHY CAMPUS
April is Environmental Wellness Month! What is Environmental Wellness? And, how does it relate to you?
The Wellness Centre’s latest newsletter shows you how you can make small changes that have lasting effects, not just for your community but for your health.
