The Gender and Sexual Diversity Symposium – Call for Papers
March 28-29, 2014 | The Loft, 4th Floor MacEwan Hall
The Institute for Gender Research and the Women’s Studies Program aim to bring together members of the campus community with local artists, activists and related groups to share research, best practices, and methods of scholarly, community engagement from an intersectional and inclusive feminist perspective. Their goal is to advance knowledge of gender and sexual diversity and to recognize its centrality to understanding and positively influencing human dynamics in a changing world. Details on submissions. Submission deadline: February 21, 2014.

Mitacs Globalink Job Opportunity
The Mitacs Globalink program is hiring undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate students to be Globalink Mentors. Globalink Mentors will be the Canadian hosts and provide all aspects of support for three to seven top international undergraduate students that have been selected by the Globalink program to come to Canada this summer for 12 week research internships. Globalink Mentors are expected to commit on average 5hrs/week to this four or five month position and will be paid $1400 and $1700 respectively. Full job description. Please email your resume and cover letter to globalinkhire@mitacs.ca by February 24, 2014. Early applications are strongly encouraged.

Getting Ready for Tax season?
