Get Ready to Get Hired!
October 15 and November 14. Hosted by the Medical Science Student Association
This event series addresses the very real need for upper year graduate students to prepare for the transition from academia to the working world after graduation. The event series consists of a career workshop day, resume editing assistance from UCalgary Career Services, and a final mock interview day in which students will be interviewed for a mock job posting using their updated resumes in front of Alberta-based medical and industry professionals. Go online or email gethired@ucalgary.ca for more info and to register.

Advanced Energy Analytics Competition
The Advanced Energy Analytics Competition is sponsored by IBM Canada and the UCalgary Advisory Committee on Analytics and Visualization. Student teams are invited to identify a real-world energy problem and develop a software-based solution using data analytics. The competition is open to undergrad and grad student teams of 2-4, with cash prizes of $2000, $1000, and $500. Full details can be found online.

Healthy Campus & U Newsletter
