FGS Policy Review – Campus Wide Consultation
FGS is undertaking a complete review of our policies. These new policies will replace the current Handbook of Supervision and Examination, as well as select sections of the FGS Calendar relating to the thesis, thesis examination, and candidacy requirements. We want to hear your feedback/comments on these new policies. Find out how you can participate.

Completing your degree soon?
Don’t forget to apply for graduation if you have completed or plan to complete before Friday, September 27.

Graduate Students - Want Leadership Experience?
Become a My GradSkills Ambassador. Take on a leadership role that will help to shape the future of professional development at the University of Calgary. As a My GradSkills Ambassador you will connect with graduate students across departments and help students in your own program find the resources and training they need to succeed. You will also gain recognition through credit on your Co-Curricular Record. Visit the My GradSkills website to get more information or apply before Friday, October 4 deadline.
